MISS DODGE'S WILL DIVIDES $7,431,307

Many Legacies - Teachers College Gets $1.344,705; Y. W. C. A., $1,329,705.

amounts from $200 to $5,000. Fourteen nieces, nephews and cousing set $17.501.37. Other bequests are: $12,500 cach to Louise and Hearsay Girvan, relatives by marriage: $10,000 in trust for Arabella C. Masterson and $75,058.34 to Mary B. Woodward, a niece.

The report of Appraiser Harry Kopp shows that Teachers College, in which Miss Dodge was interested for many years, will eventually receive $1,344,706 from the estate. Of this amount the college got $515,000 at once and will recollege got $515,000 at once and will receive $829,705 on the death of Miss Dodge's sister, Miss Mary H. Dodge. This is half the one-third share of the residue left to Miss Mary H. Dodge for consisting of her residence at Riverdale, worth $212,760; the furniture and

The decedent gave $25,000 each to

The decedent gave $25,000 each to two cousins and to the following organizations: The World's Student Christian Federation, the State Charities Aid Association, the Riverdale Presbyterian Church, the Y. M. C. A. and the auxiliary society of the New York Association of Working Girls Vacation Societies. Bequests of $10,000 each went to eighteen nephews, nieces, grandnephews and grandnieces. Jessie E. Trimble, the decedent's secretary, received $5,000.

Trust funds of $15,000 each went to E. Anna Buchanan and Lydia S. Gouid, friends. On their death the principal of the funds goes to the Working Girls Vacation Society and the Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church.

The Travelers Aid Society, of which Miss Dodge was one of the chief supporters, received $25,000, and a similar amount went to the Board of Home Missions and Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church each. The American College for Girls at Constantinople got $50,000 and the Young Women's Christian Association received $200,000.

Miss Dodge owned paintings worth

Miss Dodge owned paintings worth
$12,690 in her residence at 262 Madison avenue, the most valuable being the following: "River of Light" (F. E.
Church), $2,000; Landscape, "Pool and Cattle" (Hart), $1,000; landscape
(Homer Martin), $3,000.

Murphy—Wiborg.

Securities Bulk of Estate.

The bulk of Miss Dodge's estate consisted of securities valued at $7.034,130. The largest holding was 27.038 shares of Phelps, Dodge & Co., worth $4,947,954. Other stocks were: 9,802 El Paso Southwestern, $784,160: 1,700 American Brass, $221,000; 585 Ansonia Clock Company, $135,854; 7,448 Old Dominion Company, $135,854; 7,448 Old Domi on Wedding Trip.

On Miss Sara Sherman Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prink B. Wiborg, adaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prink B. Wiborg, and the Constant Trip.

On Wedding Trip.

On Miss Sara Sherman Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prink B. Wiborg, and Mrs. Adding the Constant Trip.

On Wedding Trip.

On Miss Sara Sherman Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prink B. Wiborg, and the Charlott Hibbard, Mary Prink B. Wiborg, and the Constant Trip.

On Wedding Trip.

On Miss Sara Sherman Wiborg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prink B. Wiborg, and the Charlott Hibbard, Mary Prink B. Wiborg, and the Charlott Hibbard, Mary Prink B. Wiborg, and the Charlott Hibbard, Mary Prink B. Wiborg, and the Charlott Hibbard, Mrs. Adding the Constant Trip.

One of the most individual and deli

LOVE DECIDES WILL CONTEST.

LOVE DECIDES WILL CONTEST.

W. N. Hourigan's Young Widow Gets income of $100,000 Estates.

W. N. Hourigan's Young widow of the stain trimmed with flources and the same of $100,000 Estates.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain trimmed with some of $100,000 Estates.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of Othello for Passad many and the same of $100,000 other than that of Othello for Passad many and the same of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain trimmed with some of $100,000 other than that of Othello for Passad many and the same of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of Othello for Passad many and the same of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of Othello for Passad many and the same of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of Othello for Passad many and the same of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the valley.

ELTARKTH, N. J., Dec. 30—"Al love as even as followed by the stain of the consisting and the stain of the consistent and the stain of th rained nurse of West Brighton, Stater Hourigan's estate, which is estimated at about $100,000. Upon her death or remarriage the estate will be divided among four hospitals. Mrs. Hourigan told Judge Conpolive that the control of Mrs. told Judge Connolly that she was 24 years old and that her husband had courted her since she was 18. Mr. Hourigan's age was given as 70. Mrs. Matilda Collins of Lincoln Road, Brooklyn, and the Misses Ella, Katherine and Mary Fogarty of 334 Macon street, Brooklyn, nieces and cousins of Mr. Hourigan, appeared for the contestants.

TRENCHES HOLD ENO SECRET. Proceedings Started to Get Testi mony From French Soldier. The contestants of the will of Ame gate's Court yesterday to get the testi-mony of a French soldier now in the trenches. The soldier is Edmond Bi-gaut, for many years Mr. Eno's valet, who left his service just before Mr.

terested in the Eno will to show cause to-day why the testimony should not be taken by a commission was signed by Surrogate Cohalan on the application of Mrs. Florence C. Graves, a niece of the decedent, and her attorney, Charles M. Rosecrantz, Mrs. Graves said Bigaut was Mr. Eno's personal attendant un Mr. Eno's personal attendant up three months before his death on October 24 last, and that his testimony is absolutely necessary to the contes-tants on the question of the testator's mental condition and ability to make valid will, since he was more familiar with Mr. Eno's condition than any other

Mrs. Graves said that without the tes timony of Bigaut, who is now stationed at Rodez, France, it will be impossible to prove the physical and mental condition of her uncle. Mr. Rosecrantz said the deposition of Bigaut should be taken at the earliest possible time, because Bigaut's position "is fraught with the gravest danger and he is liable at any moment to be killed."

W00DWARD LEFT $1,116,946. Brooklyn Institute Gets Largest estate, $267,170; an endowment of $36,-000 for the Botanic Carden, and an art collection—paintings, water colors, jades, art objects, &c.—appraised at $87,068. Several minor bequests swell the total to $428,194.44.

Share, $428,194.

Charitable bequests are: $5,000 each to the First Unitarian Society of Brooklyn, the Bureau of Charities, the Children's Aid Society and the Eye and Ear Hospital; $2,500 each to the Gerry Society, the Brooklyn Hospital, the Home for Consumptives and the Home for Aged Men and Couples, and $1,000 for the Public Schools Athletic League.

There were twenty-one bequests, aggregating $43,000, most of which went to former employees and servants, in WIDE RANGE OF GIFTS to former employees and servants, in $16,500 Is Left to Charittee.

Lewis Seasongood, who died in Cincinnatti on November 29, 1914, left $1,-295,603. He owned real estate in New York worth $278,960 and had property The national board of the Young Women's Christian Associations of the United States got $500,000 at once and will get $829,705 on the leath of Miss Mary H. Dodge, a total of $1,329,705.

To her brother, Cleveland H. Dodge, the decedent gave a total of $1,870,429, consisting of her residence at Riverdale.

Louis Biel's Estate $926,616.

personal effects at Riverdale, valued at $8,260, and one-third of the residue, $1,669,409. A second sister, Mrs. Alice Osborn, wife of William Church Osborn, received the other third of the residue and $25,000 additional, which is to be disposed of according to written instructions left by Miss Dodge.

Many Gifts in Will.

The decedent gave $25,000 each to two cousins and to the following organi-many other priests. Among others who attended the service were ex-Lieutenant-Governor J. Linn Bruce, Sheriff and Mrs.

Bridal Couple Going to Pauama on Wedding Trip.

wedding trip, and after their return to New York on February 1 will make their home at 50 West Eleventh street. The bridegroom is vice-president of the Rollinson-McGee.

The wedding of Miss Helen MoGee, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Flonel McGee of Jersey City, to Joseph R. Rollinson of Rahway, N. J., took place last night at the St. Regis. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles Herr of Jersey City. Mrs. Norman E. Ogden, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor and Roy Bomsted was the best man. After the ceremony was the best man. After the ceremony

Fanny Ward Weds J. W. Dean.

Word came from Los Angeles yesterday of the marriage there of Fanny Ward, the actress, to John W. Dean, who played leading roles in her company. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meehan of Hollywood.

Miss Ward's first husband was Joseph

African diamond mer-Lewis, a South African diamond mer-chant, from whom she obtained a di-vorce in London on January 13, 1913. divorce a short time ago.

NOTES OF THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Mrs. William Alexander gave a small linner last night at the St. Regis Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp of 247 Fifth avenue will give a dinner morrow evening.

The annual ball of the Southern clety will be given at the Hotel Astor on January 10. Mrs. Edward R. Stettinius will give a ball to-night at Sherry's for her daughter, Miss Isabel Stettinius. Mrs. Henry Wehrhane will give a dance to-night at Broad Acres, her country place at Llewellyn Park, N. J., for her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Gardiner Lord, Jr.

Mrs. Richard Peabody gave a dinne last night for her daughter, Miss Pris-cilla Peabody, at her home, 30 East Later the young people went to the dance at Sherry's. Mrs. H. de Berkeley Parsons also gave a dinner before the Sherry dance for her daughter, Miss Katherine de Berkeley Parsons.

Share, $428,194.

Col. Robert B. Woodward of Brooklyn, who died on September 2, 1915, left a gross estate of $1,116,948,32, of which $1,040,685,37$ is net, according to a tax sppraiser's report filed yesterday. About half the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to go which the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions and the estate goes to charitable and philanthropic institutions for the diocese of New 3. Personal disconting the part of the diocese

"Don't misuse that. John.

MISS RUPERTI INTRODUCED. Reception Followed by Dinner and

Theatre Party. Mrs. Justus Ruperti gave a reception yesterday afternoon at the Colony Club to introduce her daughter, Mies Lilly to introduce her daughter. Mies Lilly Ward Ruperti. They were assisted in receiving by the Misses Adelaine and Elleen Sedgwick, Amy Bradish Johnson, Marion Townsend, Katherine Van Rensselaer Crosby, Annette Davis, Helen Barrett, Ethel Simmons, Isabel Yeomans, Dorothea Camp. Alice Gibb. Dorothy Darreil, Grace Franklin, Marion Perry and Isabel Stettinus.

A dinner at the club followed the reception and the young men at it included Baron Schroeder, Richard Duane, William Carrington Stettinius, Chandler Bates, Edward Denby, William Lawton. Bates, Edward Denby, William Lawton, Thomas Rector, Harry Cushing 3d, George Richard, Justus O. Ruperti, Rudolph Triest, Robert Carrere, James M. Beck, Jr., and Charles Brackett. After the dinner Mr. and Mrs. Ruperti took their guests to the New Amsterdam Theatre to see "Around the Map."

After the theatre the young people went to the second of the three Sherry

ARRIVALS AT THE HOTELS.

Prince George—J. M. Shourt, St. Paul Minn.; D. E. Walsh, Boston. Albert—A. C. Dennison, Portland, Me. G. M. Goldwater, Richmond, Va. Claridge—F. A. Ordway, G. B. Kimball, Boston; A. Westcott, Syracuse; F. A. Bu-lock, Pittsburg; G. W. Houk, Buffalo. McAlpin—Mrs. E. H. Mortimer, Miss Lucile Mortimer, University, Va.; A. Y. Leech, Jr., Washington; Charles V. Mere-dith, Richmond, Va.

Manhattan—Mr. and Mrs. Peers David-son, Montreal; Prof. Hugo Munsterberg, Cambridge, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Church, Jopin, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Parker, Boston. Parker, Boston.

Gotham—Mr. and Mrs. Doremus. Columbus. Ohlo; Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Robinson. Westbury. L. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Clapp. Kinderhook. N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Harvey, Philadelphis.

RUSSIAN BALLET GIVES SPALDING IS HEARD IN LONDON VICAR CALLED BIG BENEFIT IN PARIS CONCERT WITH WHITING TO ST. JAMES'S CHURCH

Was or more special to the soldier special to the special to the soldier special to the specia workmanship, which was wholly polished in beauty of detail. Each artist gave no lack to be felt as ensemble perform ance alternated with that of solois The concert was in truth a rare attain ment throughout in its combination of understanding and musterly skill.

ICE SKATING PARTY GIVEN.

Mrs. Myron D. Paterson Entertains
at the Biltmore.

Mrs Myron D. Paterson gave a novel birthday party last night at the Biltmore Ice Gardens, where she invited several of her friends for ice skating and supper. The guests were asked to see the church since 1904. He will be 79 per. The guests were asked to wear sport clothes and as almost everybody brought skates, the party was unique. During the evening an orchestra played for the skaters, and at midnight supper was being served in the glass enclosed tearnom. While supper was being served there were exhibitions of fancy skating by Alfred and Siegrid Naess, formerly of the Hippodrome ice ballet.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward and Siegrid Naess, formerly of the Hippodrome ice ballet.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ewson Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Elilis Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, Jo

E. Vander Horst Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sykes, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Raw-son Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adrian, John McE. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hoffman, Mrs. G. Starr Tyson, Miss Clairise Pater-son, Miss Edith Phillips, Mrs. Charles Curtis, Walter Merrall, Elliot Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Philip von Saltza, Mr. and Mrs. John Reilly, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James Welch, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lueder, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. R. Carpenter, William Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gesing, Adolf Norden, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGlibbon, C. S. Somerville and Holland B. Judkins.

MISS GREER TO BE BRIDE.

Her Engagement to Robert ( Myles, Jr., Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Greer of 126 East Fifty-sixth street, yesterday an-nounced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Greer, to Robert C. Mylos, Jr., eldest son of Dr. Robert C. Myles and Mrs. Myles of 875 Park ave-

Missionary Review of the World, and is

COLLEGE SEEKS $250,000. Campaign Launched to Raise Fund

for St. Stephen's. At a dinner given last night by Haley

Fiske to a number of friends of St Stephen's College, Annandale-on-the-Hudson, a campaign was launched for a quarter of a million dollars for building and endowment. Mr. Fiske gave the ing and endowment. Mr. Fiske gave the dinner at his offices in the Metropolitan Building.

President W. C. Rodgers of St. Ste
President W. C. Rodgers of St. Ste
Miss Meryl Hunter. President W. C. Rodgers of St. Ste-phen's explained that the present growth

Myles, Jr., eldest son of Dr. Robert C. Myles and Mrs. Myles of 875 Park avenue.

Myles and Mrs. Myles of 875 Park avenue.

Some of those present at the dinner who will act as advisers in the campaign were Bishop Burch, J. Van V. Okout, John A. Hance, Philip S. Dean, William made at a reception given by her mother etc. the Colony Club on December 22.

MARIE DORO TO SING IN BELMONT OPERETTA

Out of Town Managers Wire He Has a Stroke of Apoplexy Offering Engagements for Suff Musical Play.

Marie Doro, she of the big eyes and the lovely voice, which voice was supposed by her admirers to have been silenced forever by the lure of the movie film, has consented to take the part of Miranda and Her Staters," the suffrage operetta written by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Miss Elize Maxwell, to be produced at the Waldorf-Astoria on February 18, for the benefit of votes for women. Miss Doro took occasion yeaterday to dany the rumor that she had left the stage forever for the movies. She had left it for a year, she said, and so the only chance her friends will have to see her in a speaking part this year is in Mrs. Belmont's operatic.

Most of the boxes have been sold for the performance, Mrs. Belmont said. Thirtsen of them brought $125 each. Maragers in Boston, Philadelphis, Chicago and other cities have wired to plies Maxwell and Mrs. Belmont suggesting that they would like to have the operating the probably will go on the would like to have the operating Emmy Whelen will be Diana in the New York production, and she, Miss Doro and Marte Dressler, who will be Mrs. Pepper, are the only professionels in the cast. The debutantes who take most of the other parts will each have a special song, which will be printed with a picture of the singer on the cover. The debutantes expect to make a lot of money for suffrage by selling copies of the songs on February 18.

Among the boxholders are Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Mrs. Hermann Celrichs, Mrs. Charles H. Senff and Mrs. Edward N. Breitung.

Or his staff, will accompany the body as far as Vicksburg.

Gev. Hammond was born in Southboro, Nass., November 17, 1863. He was a descendant of William Hammond, who is a descendant of William Hammond, who as the was stricken with paralysis. Mr. Hawley was 57 years old and was born in Brockfield, Conn. He was graduated from Dartimouth in 1884 and went to Minnesota, where he settled at Mankato. He was principal of the high school there for a year and then went to Madelia, where he was superintendent of schools for five years.

In the campaign of 1890 M.

LOFT BONBON FOR SUFFS. ongressman Tells Women He

for the Cause. George W. Loft, candy manufacturer and Democratic Congressman from the Thirteenth district, made a new bonbon yesterday. It is called the votes for women promise, and he handed it out to a group of women from the Congress to a group of women from the Congress to general Union for Woman Suffrage, who went to see him yesterday at his factory, Broome and Centre streets, to ask him to vote for the Susan B. Anthony amendment when it comes up in Washington tis winter.

Alin.

In 1892 he was the Democratic candidate for Congress, but was defeated, and two years later was elected County Attorney of Walonwan county. He held the same office from 1900 to 1904. In 1898 Mr. Hammond was appointed a member of the State Board of Normal School Directors and served eight years. He was elected to Congress in 1916 and 1912. He left Congress in 1916 and 1912. He left Congress in 1914 to become Governor. George W. Loft, candy manufacture ngton tis winter.

ington tis winter.

The women were Mrs. John Winters Brannan, Mrs. Robert Adamson, Miss Marian May, Mrs. Robert Niles, Mrs. Calvin Tomkins, Mrs. John Sherwin Crosby and Mrs. Ide Moody Palmer. They had some eloquent suffrage speeches all ready to say to him, but the candy man never gave them the chance. "Charmed to see you, ladies." he began the minute they entered. "I will say at once that I intend to yote for the at once that I intend to vote for the amendment. I see no reason why American women shouldn't have politi-of her parents, 137 Clinton street, Brooklyn. The receiving party included the Misses Ruth Jenks, Elizabeth Thayer.

Charlotte Hibbard, Mary Praeger, Mabel
Coutts, Adelaide Moffat, Anne Thompson,
Coutts, Adelaide Moffat, Anne Thompson,
Coutts, Emily Goetze, Florence

The Baron wrote the happenings of Diablo
Roiteux" with a keen sense of humor that won him appreciation.

SAUGERTIES, N. Y., Dec. 30.—John N.
Bogart, newspaper man and former Commissioner of Licenses of New York, died here to-day of pneumonia. Mr.

Missionary Review of the World, and is the author of several religious works.

For several summers Dr. Holden has preached in Brooklyn a number of terms. He has been one of the speakers of the Christian Workers' Conference, the principal summer religious event at East Northfield, Mass., for a number of years.

Dr. Holden was to have sailed for New York in 1912 on the Titanic, but was detained in London.

Missionary Review of the World, and is the author of several religious works.

For several summers Dr. Holden has preached in Brooklyn a number of terms. He has preached in Brooklyn a number of terms. He has been one of the speakers of the Christian Workers' Conference, the principal summer religious event at East Northfield, Mass., for a number of years.

Dr. Holden was to have sailed for New York in 1912 on the Titanic, but was detained in London.

Dr. Holden was to have sailed for Show York Appraiser's Stores, where they are appraised by recognized experts, the port appraisance of the States the only market for the business.

Demetri Carra, 75 years old, the became a telegrapher and served as such during the civil war. Soon after the war he became associated with the Mitchell wagon works and was the last survivor of the founders of the business.

Demetri Carra, 75 years old, the became a telegrapher and served as such during the civil war. Soon after the war he became associated with the Mitchell wagon works and served as such during the civil war. Soon after the war he became a telegrapher and served as such during the civil war. Soon after the war he became associated with the Mitchell wagon works and served as such during the civil wa reach $25,000,000. Owing to the great falling off in the importations of precious the leading purchaser of gems in 1916. Emeralds always have friends, but good stones of this class are hard to get on Wednesday at Elk Inn, Saranac Lake. Still the demand has to be met and importers have literally scoured the earth from the shipping business at Van Brunt and Saranac Lake. to supply their customers with the prized and Sedgwick streets, Brooklyn, two stones. Rubles show a falling off this years ago. He had been a resident of year. This decline has been in evidence Brooklyn for over thirty years. for some years, owing to the large pro

THE SEAGOERS.

By the White Star liner Lapland for Liver-A. H. Mather J. Kerr Osborne J. H. Preston A. W. Tatt. President To.

phen's explained that the present growth had been limited only by lack of resources. The immediate need, he said, was for $50,000 for improvements, but it was agreed that an additional endowment of $200,000 was necessary in order that the college might develop properly.

Some of those present at the dinner of the Munson liner Munamar for the Munson line of the Munson liner Munamar for the Munson line of Aboard the Munson liner Munamar for Cuba:

Cuba:
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. John A. Mayo.
Hutchinson.
Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Mr. and Mrs. William Isaacs.
Earl Eastright.
Mrs. Marion B. Steyens.
Miss Edith Fairfax.

GOV. HAMMOND OF MINNESOTA DIES

While Visiting in Louisiana.

member of the State Board of Normal School Directors and served eight years. He was elected to Congress in 1966 and reelected in 1910 and 1912. He left Congress in 1914 to become Governor, having a majority of 20,000 in a State that a normally Republican by 30,000.

Gov. Hammond's successor is J. A. A. Burnouter who was reslected Liquidan. Burnquist, who was reelected Lieuten-ant-Governor on the Republican ticket.

BARON DE VAUX.

of Founders of "Gil Blas" Is Dead in Paris.

American women shouldn't have political freedom. I shall do all I can to help the measure, and if the Democratic party goes back on suffrage in caucus I shall boit the caucus."

Baron de Vaux, writer and sportsman, died on Tuesday in Paris. He was formerly an officer of cavalry and served in the Franco-Prussian war. Later he deserted that profession for literature and was one of the founders of Gil Blas of the Boulevard des Italiens, in House Packed at Top Prices by Americans and English in Aid of Red Cross.

Miss Ager Introduced.

Miss Margaret Ager, daughter of Dr. which many noted writers had their first which many noted writers had their first were Guy de Maupassant, Catulle Menduced yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, 137 Clinton street, Brooklyn. The receiving party included the land Wieler and Scholl.

Miss Margaret Ager, daughter of Dr. which many noted writers had their first were Guy de Maupassant, Catulle Menduced, Armand Sylvester, Barbay d'Aure-villy, Richepin, Rochefort and Scholl. des, Armand Sylvester, Barbay d'Aure-villy, Richepin, Rochefort and Scholl. The Baron wrote the happenings of

HERBERT D. THOMPSON.

President of Northern Central

Railroad Dies at 55. BALTIMORE, Dec. 30 .- After an illness lasting since Christmas eve Herbert Dalton Thompson, assistant treasurer of the Northern Central and Elmira and Lake Ontario railroads and treasurer of the Central Elevator Company of Balti-

Mr. Lewis was born in Utica, N. Y., in 1849 and came to Racine when but 15 years old. He became a telegrapher and served as such during the civil war.

Soon after the war he have a such during the civil war.

Demetri Carra, 75 years old, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs.

L. Nagle, 84 West Thirty-fifth street.

Doering, Caroline A. S. Simmons to Dr.

Frank Le Strange. Frank Le Strange, stage manager of Grand Opera House. He leaves a wife and six children.

NEW YEAR'S CARDS BOOKS CALENDARS NOVELTIES

5th Ave. and 27th St. New York

IRA ALLEN SANKEY.

Hymn Writer's Son Dies at Sea on

Second Honeymoon. Ira Allen Sankey, son of the late Ira D. Sankey, the hymn writer, died yesterday on the steamship Korona, on which he was bound for the West India his bride of ten days, according to a message received by his family in Brook-lyn. Death is believed to have been due to tonsillitis. Mr. Sankey, who was 40 years old, was married on December 20 to Mrs. Anna Underhill Meighan, a daughter of John Quincy Underhill of New Rochelle.

In the campaign of 1890 Mr. Hammond took a prominent part and in 1891 was appointed secretary of a commission appointed to investigate Stillwater prison. That year he was also admitted to the bar and practised for five years at Madelia, and then moved to St. James, Minn.

In 1892 he was the Democratic candidate for Congress, but was defeated.

Hospital after a long liness. He was one of the well known newspaper men He was born in New York thirty-five years ago, was graduated from a Brook-lyn High School and then began his newspaper work in the sporting department of The Evening Sun. From there he went to the Errning World and in 1905 joined the staff of the Telegram.

He reported many famous trials, among them that of Lieut. Charles Becker. He also reported the impeachment of Gov He was married on January 6, 1910, to Miss Mary Kalt of Norwalk, Conn., who with five children survive him.

JOHN N. BOGART.

Newspaper Man and Ex-Commis-

Bogart was born in Johnstown, N. and after learning the printers tra-took up newspaper work in 1884. He contributed labor news to John Swinton's paper. He was twice president of the Labor Press Association and had been a member of Big Six Typographical years ago became rector of St. Paul's Church, Portman Square.

He was honorary chaplain to the Earl of Aberdeen, associate editor of the Missionary Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and Church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and Church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and Church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and Church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World, and is trench 125 and and church Portman Review of the World Portman Review of the

MARRIED.

DIED.

TSELL -Susan J., beloved daughter of the late George W. and Ellen M. Matsell, entered into rest, December 27, at Matsellion (Sione City), Iowa, Notice of funeral hereafter.

McMANUS - Edward A., on December 23. MANUS.—Edward A. on December 23, 1815, son of the late John and Maria McManus, brother of John J. Owen. Thomas J. James L. William F. and Charles A. at his residence, 452 West Forty-ninth street. January 7, at 11 A. M., thence a Church of Sacred Heart, West Fifty first street, where a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated. Interment at Calvary. SANKEY.—Suddenly, December 10 on board steamship Korona at sea, I. Alian Sankey, beloved husehald of Arina Underhill Sankey, and son of the late Ira D. Sankey the Montauk Theatre in Brooklyn, died swall.—At his residence, Donhead Lodge westerday at his home, 294 Dean street.

Wimbledon, London, on December 25 Wimbledon, London, on December 2a, Henry Small of the firm of Darragh, Small & Co. Ltd., New York and London, England, SOUTHMAYD -- Sudden's, at East Orang N. J., December 29, 1915, Herbert F youngest son of the late Frederick A youngest son of the face Frederica A and Meta G Southmayd.

Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 72 North Walnut street, Friday morning. December 31, on arrival of train leaving Hoboken via D. L. &

YORK.—Lakewood, N. J., December 30, Emma Warbury Work, daughter of the late F. F. Marbury, and wife of the late Frank Work, Jr., in the exty-sixth year of her age. Funeral private. Interment Woodlawn Cemetery, New York

W. R. R. at 10:39 A. M.

Mrs. August Schreiner (nee May Tyler) 1